

UNITED WAY

2017-2018 ANNUAL REPORT

United Way
of Meriden and Wallingford

THANK YOU

Often a retirement of an individual is noted by the organization from which he or she retires. In the case of James Ieronimo, who retired as Chief Professional Officer of the United Way of Meriden and Wallingford, the entire nonprofit community in which Jim was involved noted his retirement with both regret and celebration.

Jim's twelve-year career at the helm of the UWMW was marked with accomplishment. The UWMW was the first in the state to adopt the Results-based Accountability model of setting and measuring a nonprofit's goals and objectives. He led the Ten-year Plan to End Homelessness in Meriden and Wallingford. He partnered with Midstate Medical Center to adopt a Needs Assessment program in use today. Under his leadership, the UWMW highlighted the difficulties experienced by ALICE (Asset-Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) families in our area. He also extensively expanded the VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Program) program.

Jim Ieronimo, through his energy, intellect and personality, has left an indelible mark on both Meriden and Wallingford. While he will be missed, everyone he touched wishes him a long, happy and healthy retirement.

PLAYERS' WEEKEND

Celebrating the 2018 NFL Players' Weekend is a very special year. For our United Way, it marks our tenth year to host this special event that raises funds for our youth programs. It's 25 years for JL Sports and their team of offering this extraordinary opportunity. What a partnership!

Joe and Kathleen Linta together with the most generous and fun-loving NFL players and future stars have worked with us on a weekend that is unduplicated in New England. Special thanks to their colleagues, especially Lori Evon and Matt Ritchie, our Auctioneer television meteorologist Matt Scott, the sound and visual effects of John Rozz of Sound Spectrum and our special partners, Zandri's Stillwood Inn, Choate Rosemary Hall and Brunswick Colony Lanes, our Board members and all the volunteers who make this weekend such a success.

Let's not forget our sponsors who, without their support year after year, helped us raise over $50K and made celebrating our anniversaries so memorable.

To all of you, we say THANK YOU!

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

Only 26 years old when he came to the United States and Canada in 1831, Alexis Charles-Henri de Tocqueville traveled extensively, recording his observations of life in the young nations.

Though he only spent nine months in North America, he gleaned many profound insights about American society. His observations, readings and discussions with eminent Americans formed the basis of Democracy in America, a detailed study of American society and politics published in two volumes, in 1835 and 1840.

Tocqueville recognized, applauded and immortalized North American voluntary action on behalf of the common good. He wrote: "I must say that I have seen Americans make a great deal of real sacrifices to the public welfare; and have noticed a hundred instances in which they hardly ever failed to lend a faithful support to one another," eloquently capturing the essence of personal philanthropy that persists almost three centuries later.

The observations on philanthropy made by Alexis de Tocqueville in 1831 are true today; North Americans understand that advancing the common good means creating opportunities for a better life for all. The name Tocqueville Society was chosen because of Alexis de Tocqueville's admiration for the spirit of voluntary association and effort toward its advancement.
